Cheerful Christmas figures made from wooden spatulas

Instructions No. 3138

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 2 Hours

Christmas is just around the corner and what could be better than making creative Christmas decorations with your children? In these instructions, we'll show you how to conjure up colorful and cheerful Christmas figures from simple wooden spatulas. These little works of art are not only only great fun for the whole family, but also make wonderful decorations for the Christmas tree, as decorations on the Christmas table or a unique gift tag.

Step-by-step instructions for festive Christmas figures made from wooden spatulas

Paint the wooden spatulas

First, take the wooden spatulas and your colorful craft paints. Paint the spatulas in Christmas colors. Remember when crafting with children: It doesn't have to be perfect, the colorful variety is what makes the figures so charming! Let the colors dry well before you continue.

chenille wire Bend and attach

The next step is to use the chenille wire . Bend it so that it looks like a hat or small antlers. Wrap the wire around the top of the painted wooden spatulas and fix it with a little handicraft glue, if necessary so that it holds well.

3. jingles and attach pompoms

Now you can decorate the ends of the chenille wire with funny little jingles and pompoms . You can either simply hang them on the wire or attach them with a little handicraft glue. The little bells create a festive atmosphere not only only visually but also acoustically.

wobbly eyesglue on pompoms and buttons

To bring your Christmas figures to life, glue the wobbly eyes, pompoms and small buttons to the wooden spatulas using handicraft glue . The wobbly eyes give the figures a friendly face, while pompoms and buttons can be used as noses, mouths or bellies.

Felt strips as a scarf

Finally, cut approx. 1 cm wide strips from colorful felt. felt and knot these strips around the wooden spatulas as a scarf. This gives your figures the final cozy touch and they look much more wintery.
