Colourful Easter eggs with glitter

Instructions No. 1927

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

They can' Easter eggs t be colourful enough for Easter. This Colour for marbling can be done quickly and easily and brings a lot of fun for young and old. The nice thing about this technique is that each egg is unique.

That's how you marble:

First you need a larger container (bucket or bowl) into which you pour lukewarm water. Take turns drizzling your desired colours into the water bath. You can see how the colour spreads on the water surface to form a film. Using a bamboo skewer, you can draw beautiful patterns in the colour according to your personal taste. Put the eggs on a bamboo skewer before slowly dipping them into the vessel Tip: Sprinkle some glitter in the paint before dipping the eggs. If you want an even stronger effect, sprinkle some glitter on the egg again immediately after the dive. Put the stick in dry foam to dry (approx. 3 hours).

Another idea

The Terracotta-eggs are first coated with two layers Napkin varnish painted. Let it dry. Then dilute Handicraft paint ..with water, apply splotches to the eggs and spread it by blowing

Once the whole egg is covered with spots of paint and the paint is completely dry, rinse it with water - this will give you great and unique effects

If you want to completely cover the eggs with glitter, wear Napkin varnish and sprinkle glitter in. Repeat this procedure a second time.
