Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour 30 Minutes

We can all use a bit of luck for the New Year. Make these cute lucky paper pigs for New Year's Eve. They can be filled inside with small treats such as fortune biscuits and given to guests as gifts.

DIY Lucky Pigs for New Year's Eve

Print out the free template. Cut out the motifs and transfer them to the clay and glitter paper.

Cut out the triangle (A) three times per pig and stick it to all sides of the gift box with craft glue. Now fold up the gift box and close it.

Cut out the inner ear (C) twice and stick it onto the two ears (B) with 3D adhesive pads.

Stick on the wiggly eyes and the button as a nose.

Label the banner (F) and stick it onto the larger banner (E) with 3D adhesive pads. Stick it to the gift box with craft glue.

Cut out the shamrocks (D) and stick them to the box as well.

Cut the chenille wire in the middle, wrap it in a spiral around a pencil and glue it to the box.
