Working time: 3 Hours

The little self-sewn whale does not only delight children's hearts but looks adorable on the sofa in the living room. He is simply sewn and is also an excellent gift. Give the little whale a home and decorate it at home. Filled with a heavy filling like Sand, the little journeyman also makes an excellent doorstop.

This is how the whale is sewn:

Print out the templates and glue the paper blanks together. Now place the templates on your selected fabrics and transfer them. All pieces are cut with 1 cm seam allowance

Start with the fins. These are folded right sides together, sewn together and filled with cotton wool. Now also close the open side of the fins and fix them with a few stitches on the left side of the bottom of the whale.

Now you can sew on the buttons for the eyes. Now sew the two parts with the eyes to the underside with the fins by placing the parts right sides together. Now sew on the middle part. Don't forget to leave a turning opening through which the whale is turned and filled with cotton wool. Finally close the turning opening.
