Instructions No. 537

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 40 Minutes

The large surfaces of this tea box are perfectly suited for flat gluing with a special Napkin technique. effect on glued flowers, Craft cardboard sheet which are placed around the viewing window.

Here's how it works

Unscrew the fittings and hinges and put them aside.
Prime the tea chest with a Paint sponge white primer and let it dry.
Cut the napkin motifs roughly to size, remove the two unprinted layers of paper.
Apply the spray glue to the back of the printed paper layer and stick it to the tea chest.
Tip: If the motifs are not in the right place or have creases, they can be carefully removed and repositioned.
Coat all surfaces with Napkin varnish and fix the Napkins in this way.
Cut back the excess Paper with a scalpel after it has dried.
Stick individual flowers from the Napkin on white Craft cardboard sheet . Cut out the motifs after drying and stick them on the lid of the tea chest.
Finally, screw the fittings and hinges back on.
