Wall mural with pompom flowers

Instructions No. 2479

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 0 Minutes

Paint with acrylic paints and create your own work of art! This modern mural in "Blue" is just for inexperienced painters a great introduction to acrylic painting. The finished picture is then certainly a particularly beautiful eye-catcher on your wall.

Painting fun in blue

You first paint the background on the stretcher. Take some light blue paint on a painting sponge and smudge it over the complete picture to a delicate color gradient. To give the vase a visual "hold", the background in the lower part of the picture should be wiped with a little darker blue, and you also paint the sides and corners of the picture with dark paint.

Pre-draw the vase and for the pompom flowers circles in different sizes. Paint the vase in Prussian blue acrylic paint and put shading on the vase with mixed white and next to it with dark paint. These shadings give a picture "liveliness" and a spatial look.

Now paint the pompom flowers. Mix texture paste with acrylic paint for the larger circles. Apply the colored cream with the painting spatula. Subsequent dabbing of the cream creates a slight 3D look. Paint the small pompom flowers in different shades with acrylic paint. Paint the flower styles as lines with a silver acrylic marker. And finally, sign your personal work of art!
