Wedding Decoration in Cream and White

Instructions No. 840

It is a matter of honour for every real handicraft enthusiast that the table decoration at a wedding is self-made
In this handicraft idea, everything is in Creame white. White embossed cardboard is combined with the elegant uncoated paper on the menu cards. Napkin rings, give-away bags and tea light glasses are also designed with lace paper, paper flowers and shimmering half pearls.

And this is how it works

For better painting remove the bow gift from bag. Bag with one painted in ivory Paint sponge . Allow to dry and decorate with lace paper, Satin ribbon, paper flower and half pearls. Thread the bow again.
Fix a strip Natural paper of tape-Ribbon around one Glass for tea lights . Cut the lace paper in half and stick it on with a glue stick
Cut Natural paper two rectangles out of the embossed cardboard and cut them to size Emphasize embossing with glitter liner. Glue on the glass. Prime Ivory the clothespin and stick on a piece of lace paper with a glue stick Wrap Cord the "neck" of the clip with and decorate Pearl the clip and glass with a bow.
For the menu card cut a 15 x 21 cm from the embossed cardboard and for the napkin ring a smaller piece and accentuate the embossing with glitter liner. Fold the card and glue the napkin ring together with tape-Ribbon Glue Natural paper half of the card and label a rectangular piece with glitter Natural paper liner. Cut the lace paper to size and Natural paper stick it on the card

Stick a strip Natural paper around the napkin ring
Decorate both with the Paper Flowers and the half pearls. Decorate the card with shiny cord and the napkin ring with a satin bow
